

MGM Resorts International presented with the Sister Cities International 2013 Global Corporate Leadership Award

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Sister Cities International has presented MGM Resorts International with the 2013 Global Corporate Responsibility Award. The Award was presented during the exclusive Lou Wozar Annual Awards Dinner, part of Sister Cities International's 57th Annual Conference in San Antonio, Texas, July 12-13. Clark Dumont, Senior Vice President of Corporate Communications at MGM Resorts International, accepted the award on behalf of the company.

MGM was recognized for its commitment to diversity and inclusion, environmental sustainability, and community engagement. It is a leading example of a global company dedicated to serving not just its guests and employees, but also its communities.

With a stellar employee volunteer program, MGM Resorts International enables its employees to make a difference. Employees also have the opportunity to give back to nonprofits via the MGM Resorts Foundation. In 2011 alone, 42% of the employees contributed 4.6 million dollars.

MGM Resorts International is also working on mitigating environmental issues in its communities. Its Green Advantage Program implements green initiatives across their 15 properties to ultimately reduce negative impacts on the environment. The company states "The solutions we forge for our community partners today benefit not only the here and now, but mold our legacy for the future generations to come."

The Sister Cities International Global Corporate Responsibility Award was established in 2006 and recognizes companies that demonstrate a strong commitment to the community. Previous recipients include Booz Allen Hamilton, Google, Motorola, IBM, and the GE Foundation.

About Sister Cities International

Founded by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1956, Sister Cities International serves as the national membership organization for over 500 individual sister cities, counties, and states across the United States with relationships in nearly 2,000 communities in 140 countries on six continents. This sister city network unites tens of thousands of citizen diplomats and volunteers who work tirelessly to promote the organizations' mission of creating world peace and understanding through economic and sustainable development programs, youth and education projects, arts and culture, and humanitarian assistance.
