A Getaway with Purpose

The Scandinavian, Russia, Baltic Cruise on the Norwegian Getaway is a unique travel experience and opportunity to visit Baltic cities that are linked with cities in the United States and that have organized Rotary Clubs! The cruise has been designed at a time and location to accommodate Rotarians attending the Rotary Conference in Hamburg, Germany and will spotlight the many cooperative programs between Rotary clubs and Sister Cities. In addition the numerous individuals who are members of both organizations will be recognized!

Enrichment Programs

Daily networking opportunities will provide cruisers a chance to share experiences and programs and explore new joint ventures. On the "at-sea" days cruisers will come together for an exclusive Enrichment Program featuring interactive presentations on both Rotary and Sister Cities. During the formal as well as informal networking, cruisers will share best practices for strengthening and expanding Sister City and Rotary programs.

Connect with Sister Cities and Rotary Clubs

The Sister Cities Scandinavian, Russia, Baltic Cruise will provide an enriching educational experience. For those Rotarians attending the Rotary Conference in Hamburg, Germany, train transportation to the cruise departure port of Copenhagen as well as overnight accommodations can be organized upon request. Opportunities for those interested in visiting Rotary Clubs and/or Sister Cities Organization in the five port-of-call (Berlin, St. Petersburg, Tallinn, Helsinki, and Stockholm) will be facilitate as arrangements can be made and agreement with hosting groups negotiated.

Cruise Leadership

Sister Cities International and Rotary District 7750 are pleased to have two leaders in both Sister Cities International and Rotary serving as co-leaders of the cruise programming. Rotary 7750 District Governor Carol Burdette (Former Member of Sister Cities International Board of Directors) and Dr. Jane Cahaly, Sister Cities International State Representative for South Carolina (Long-Time Member of the Rotary Club of Anderson). DG Burdette currently serving her second term as DG for Rotary District 7750, in addition to her Sister City Service at the national level is also the former mayor of a South Carolina Sister City and currently serves as the Chairman of South Carolina Sister Cities. Dr. Cahaly is a retired professor of Education and Director of International Programs at Anderson University and in addition to representing South Carolina, currently serves as the Sister Cities International State Representative Liaison for the 50 US States and as the Chairman of the Anderson Areas Sister Cities Association. Both program leaders are passionate about Rotary and SCI and have traveled extensively representing both and in pursuit of "service above self"!
