

Life is a coloring book

Sonya Noskova

When the whole world is frozen
And people around
Are getting anxiety doses,
I feel free to make,
encouraging you,
My colorful friendly proposal.

Please, try to stay safe,
not only avoiding the virus,
but also I want you to wish and to crave
to paint your life in bright colors!

This covid pandemic came to our lives
Just out of the blue - it was unexpected.
We all were thinking: "it's just for two weeks".
But now we know: we were mistaken.

I know all restrictions and shocking news
might make you wrestle a black dog.
Sometimes you feel like getting blues staying at home... Locked.

I am here to give you the green light to the exploring of your soul.
Meditate, sleep very tight, learn something new, -
be comfortable on your own.

Exorcise the demons inside yourself,
Never let them treat you bad.
Cause once we are winning the covid-19
I am coming with you to paint the town red!
