

CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ANNAPOLIS

RESOLUTION NO. R-34-93

SPONSORED BY MAYOR HOPKINS

A RESOLUTION concerning

Sister City - Wexford, Ireland

FOR the purpose of designating Wexford, Ireland as a sister city for the City of Annapolis; and all matters related to said designation.

WHEREAS, Commodore John Barry was born in County Wexford, Ireland, in 1745 and became a hero of the American Revolution and the "Father of the American Navy"; and

WHEREAS, Commodore Barry, who assisted General George Washington on both sea and land, was the first commissioned Captain under the Continental Congress, commanding vessels in historic victories throughout the Revolution, and later was personally awarded Navy "Commission No. 1" under the United States Constitution by then President Washington, is remembered and honored in both Annapolis and Wexford; and

WHEREAS, Commodore Barry worked for permanent establishment of the United States Navy, which was accomplished in 1798 and led to founding of the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis in 1845; and

WHEREAS, both Annapolis, the capital of the State of Maryland, and Wexford, the capital of County Wexford, Ireland, have long traditions of seafaring and are centers of the history, culture and arts of our respective Nations; and

WHEREAS, both are abundantly blessed with beauty and fruitfulness of land and sea; and

WHEREAS, the City of Annapolis and Wexford, Ireland believe that through programs of cooperation and exchange their respective citizens will gain much in friendship and understanding of one another.

RESOLUTION
