

Richard Buckler, Lanzhou Sister Cities – Thursday, August 2

- Albuquerque, New Mexico and Lanzhou, China have been Sister Cities since 1996.
- Lanzhou is located on the banks of the Yellow River, part of territory of the State of Qin in the 6th century BC.
 - The water there effects their culture
- Dunhuang city
 - Partnerships there: oil and infrastructure
- Government is changing their policies
- Work with education organizations in cultural area it's important to find private industries and private routes
- pay 40% tuition to study in schools in this sister city their win-win program study
- They have new area to be filled up