Santa Clarita Sister Cities

Santa Clarita, CA

In cities built to withstand nature's wrath,
Resilient structures pave the path,
Towards a future where we thrive,
In harmony with Earth, we strive.

Communities bear the weight,
Of challenges brought by climate's fate,
Rising seas and scorching heat,
Threatening lives, making us retreat.

Together, cities join hands,
In a united stance,
To combat the climate's rage,
And build a sustainable stage.

In the face of adversity, we stand tall,
Building walls that will not fall,
Innovating, adapting, and transforming,
Creating a future that is warming.

Climate escape is our goal,
In resilient cities, we enroll,
In the fight against climate change,
For a better world, we arrange
